County Board Election Tuesday

Nine Quad-City members of a new Madison County Board will be elected tomorrow in 62 area voting precincts. Polling places will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

Twenty other board members will be elected at the same time in a like number of board districts in Madison County. The new 29-member County Board will replace the present 49-member Board of Supervisors.

Separate ballots will be voted in each of the nine board districts in the Quad-Cities—Districts 16, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26. Paper ballots will be used.

The nine district board seats in the Quad-Cities are sought by 14 candidates, including nine Democrats, four Republicans and one independent.

Five Unopposed
There are no Republican candidates on the ballots in five of the nine districts, but provision is made on the paper ballots to insert the name of write-in candidates.

The only three-way race in the area is in District 16 where James Greer Jr., an 18-year-old student, is an independent candidate opposing Democrat Albert E. Doerr of South Roxana and Republican Roy Grover, Rural Route One, Granite City. There are no independent candidates in the other eight districts of the Quad-Cities.

Grover was nominated in the Feb. 8 county board primary by write-in votes, while Greer filed as an independent. Independent candidates were not subject, to the February primary.

District 16 is made up of Chouteau Township precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 7 and Nameoki Township precinct 3. Doerr won the Democratic nomination in District 16 by defeating Walter Sparks, incumbent Chouteau township supervisor.

In District 19, made up of Granite City precincts 16, 21, 22, 23, 24, 30 and 31, William Webb of Granite City is the Democratic candidate and Walter Emde, also of Granite City, is the candidate on the GOP ballot. Webb now is a member of the County Board of Supervisors.

Nelson Hagnauer, now supervisor of Granite City Township and chairman of the present County Board of Supervisors, is the Democratic candidate as board member of District 20, which has no Republican candidate on the ballot. That district includes Granite City precincts 18, 19, 20, 27, 28 and 32.

Carl V. Buehler of Granite

City is the Republican candidate as board member of District 21, which has no Republican candidate on the ballot. That district includes Granite City precincts 18, 19, 20, 27, 28 and 32.

Public Opinion Should Await All Facts--Sasyk

The Madison County Board will be asked to take until mid-May to consider a proposal for a $20 million residential-commercial-industrial area on a 772-acre tract in Chouteau and Edwardsville Townships, Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison, one of the developers, told a meeting here this morning.

The controversial project was to be considered by the County Board, April 28.

Sasyk said he will request an extension to give the Madison County Drainage District an opportunity to conduct engineering studies on drainage.

He said the studies would enable the board to vote on fact, "instead of just pulling everything from the sky."

Sasyk said at a meeting today he spoke at a meeting today in the Granite City office of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District. The hearing was held by the county drainage district as an extension of a March 22 drainage hearing in Edwardsville.

The district board is studying drainage problems throughout the county but the proposed development on Old Route 66 has been the subject of most of the discussion. No direct objections were voiced this morning.

Amid those present today were John Guillou, chief engineer of the Illinois Division of Water Resource Management; Theodore Miksell, executive director of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission; Louis Whit-

"I don't think anyone can give an honest opinion of the project until the facts are in," Sasyk remarked.

"We would like to give this ground back to the guy we bought it from. I won't get into anything like this again. You'll see; no one else will want to either. You'll never sell another piece of agriculture property in this area in 10 years," he warned.

Sasyk said if the current project is defeated, it would jeopardize a billion dollar in an area paralleling the Chain of Rocks Canal.

Sasyk said his engineering studies have shown that the Bypass 66 development would involve only minor drainage problems and that water from the development and its sewage disposal plant would go into a county ditch. The county drainage district plans to redirect the water from the ditch north into the Hartford Canal, he said.

"I know there are minor problems, but we had 10 times this many problems when we developed Arlington Heights and today it is looked upon as one of the finest subdivisions in the state," Sasyk told the gathering.

Several persons present indicated concern over the end result on drainage if the project is built.

Guillou said Madison County has massive drainage problems and there are no direct solutions in sight. He said several long-range plans have been developed to assist the area's drainage but added that at this time "I don't know where the money is going to come from."

He said the Madison County Drainage District soon will be included in an expanded U. S. Corps of Engineers program which may provide assistance in the near future.

Guillou avoided direct references to Sasyk's proposal and limited his comments to drainage in the entire area.

Sasyk reacted to earlier criticisms of the project which he said were unsubstantiated by facts. He suggested that the county drainage district hire its own engineers to study drainage before taking a stand against further development in the area.

When asked who should pay for such a study, Sasyk suggested that potential costs be checked and a decision be reached later.

Hillside drainage may "get off the launching pad" this spring after decades of delay, State Rep. Horace Calvo, Granite City Democrat, told the Press-Record today.

A joint announcement Friday by Rep. Calvo and John Guillou, chief engineer, Division of Water Management, Illinois Department of Transportation, reported strong bi-partisan support for a proposed Illinois General Assembly resolution seeking federal action.

The Illinois House and Senate will be asked to act on the launching of this spring after decades of delay, State Rep. Horace Calvo, Granite City Democrat, told the Press-Record today.

Guillou expects swift Assembly action and vigorously support by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie.

He also said he foresees staunch backing by U. S. Senator Charles Percy, U. S. Senator Adlai Stevenson and the 24 Illinois members of Congress.

"I have been in regular contact with Mr. Guillou, particularly in the past two months, seeking to find out what can be done to obtain federal action," Rep. Calvo commented.

"In contact going back to my first term in Springfield, I have become apparent that the state has been ready to proceed with hillside drainage for some time. It is willing to provide a considerable share of the needed funds.

"Each time the state has gotten close to advancing from planning to actual construction, it has learned that sufficient federal funds were not available," Rep. Calvo related.

"We are now hopeful that both state and federal interests, combined with the strong local sentiment, will result in actual drainage remedies."

Calvo disagreed that there is evidence at this point that development of Chouteau and Edwardsville Townships would be detrimental.

Guillou said Friday that a 772-acre project could throw some cold water on the resolution and cause some "Congressional flak" if rezoning for the project is adopted by the Madison County Board April 28.

"Some are jumping too hastily to conclusions about various development plans," Rep. Calvo said.

He expressed hope that most citizens will await "all the facts" regarding how various developers propose to meet drainage requirements.

Guillou said that "in view of the letter from HUD and the fact that the financing of the Quad-City (four-township) sewer program depends to a great extent upon federal grants, much of it from HUD, I have no alternative but to recommend to the board (County Board of Supervisors) that the rezoning be rejected, or at least held in abeyance until the sewer drainage problems can be worked out."

At Saturday's meeting, several members of the delegation from the mobile homes on 543 acres of the area proposed for development, with "all of the mobile home area in Chouteau Township."

They said they believed tax revenue from the mobile homes would be insufficient to pay educational costs for children that would live in the mobile homes. The area is in Granite City School District 9.

"Sparks has spearheaded development of a four-township area in the American Bottoms."

"This is not opposed by the Region V officials of the Federal Housing and Urban Development Department in Chicago. They are opposed continued partnership developments that are in conflict with a sound and comprehensive land use plan."

"They are particularly opposed to the rezoning currently proposed for 500 mobile homes in the unsuitable area east of Mitchell, which is known to longtime residents as War of Prester."

"Nursery rhyme experts advise me that it was Chicken Little and not Henry Penny who jumped to conclusion about the sky falling down as described in my news article," Bienecki concluded.

Environmentalists Defend Opposition to Development

Two active environmentalists today defended their efforts to prevent construction of mobile homes, apartments, a golf course, a retail-commercial area and an industrial park north of Interstate 270-Route 111.

They were critical of the Press-Record's March 30 coverage headed, "Federal Official Hopes to Bar Development of County."

Henry S. Bienecki, 2709 Center St., president of the Madison County Citizens' Environmental Council and a vice-president of the Coalition for the Environment-St. Louis Region, made the following comment:

"The Press-Record's apparently hasty study of the correspondence released for publication last week to area newspapers by the Madison County Citizens' Environmental Council contained several errors."

"I would like to bring the following to your attention: (1) The original Coalition letter was not sent out with blind copies."

"A list of recipients was attached to each copy. Those receiving copies were Nelson Hagnauer, Jack Clifford, Theodore Miksell, Sam Vadalabene, Mike Sasyk, William Blaser, Robert Goetz, Alfred Kahn, Louis Whitson and myself."

"(2) The Madison County Citizens' Environmental Council and the Coalition for the Environment are not interested in governing the county.

"It is our sole purpose to encourage the establishment of public and private policies to promote and protect environmental quality for our own and future generations."

"(3) The Madison County land plan developed by SIMAR provides for 13,000 acres for heavy industrial developments in the American Bottoms."

Bi-State Urges Gateway To Reconsider Stand

A Bi-State Development Agency official deplored the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council's action in failing to endorse a statement of support and aid in securing local funds for mass transit operations during a news conference Friday.

Maria R. Bearman, Bi-State vice-president, commented, "We hope that upon reflection our plea will receive more responsible consideration than it did Wednesday in East-West Gateway's casual and off-handed rejection of any responsibility in this area's urgent public need."

Bearman was referring to the council's deletion of a section of a proposed pact between the two organizations, "The section stated: 'That in recognition of the fact that mass transit in this community cannot be financed through fare box revenues the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council and its member organizations will assist in securing financing for the operation of mass transit.'"

GC Town Budget Posted; Public Hearing April 11

A Granite City Township approval bill totaling $549,341, a decrease of $157 below the 1971-72 budget adopted a year ago, has been posted for public inspection at the city clerk's office in the city hall and will be subject to a public hearing April 11.

The new budget includes $135,841 in the town fund, $200,000 the general assistance fund and $153,500 in the municipal retirement account. Granite City Township has no road and bridge fund because all street and road work in Granite City is handled by the Granite City street department.

Public hearing on the budget will be held at 8 p.m. April 11 in the circuit courtroom on the third floor of the city hall. The hearing will be followed an hour later by the annual town elections meeting, but action by the town board on the budget will be postponed until after the regular city council meeting April 17. City council members also take up the town board.

The new budget for town purposes is $14,041 higher than the $121,800 budgeted in the town last year, but the general assistance purposes offsets $11,688 for this increase. The budget for the general assistance fund last year was $211,688. An additional $2,500 of the town fund increase is offset in the municipal retirement account which, at $135,500 this year is $2,500 drop below last year's appropriation of $138,000.

Town Fund Items
The town fund budget includes a total of $23,010 for compensation of town offices. This includes a $13,000 salary for the township assessor, $6,000 for the township supervisor, $3,750 in per diem fees for the town auditors and $260 in fees for the town clerk. All of these items are unchanged from the 1971-72 budget.

Other town fund items include $74,840 for expenses of the assessor's office, down from last year's $76,910. Most of the reduction in this item is in salaries for the chief deputy assessor, clerk and deputies, totaling $65,000 this year as compared to $67,000 last year. Traveling expense for the assessor is unchanged at $1,200.

Other items of the newly proposed budget for town purposes are $4,300 for the assessor's office expense ($2,750 last year); town office expense, $2,000 ($1,500 last year); town collector's expense, $21,941 (none last year); auditing, $2,500 ($2,200); legal expense, $3,000 (same); town officers' bonds, $1,000 (same); other services and contingencies, $1,800 (same); insurance, $1,200 ($300).

Bolled Budget Down
The proposed new budget for general assistance included $150,000 for home relief, compared with $160,788 for the 1971-72 year. Among this year's home relief costs projected in the budget are $122,000 for food, $7,500 for rent, unchanged; $5,000 for light, up from $1,600.

Weather Halts Warrior Card

Granite City High School's baseball Warriors have canceled their last three games due to the weather—very wet or very cold.

The GCHS game against Alton scheduled for last Thursday has been reset for April 28 at Alton.

One Southwestern Conference game was played Thursday as Belleville West edged Edwardsville 4-6.

According to Coach Gale Garbe, the double header scheduled here for Saturday will not be played.

Weather permitting the Warriors will take to the diamond at Triad at 4 p.m. Friday.

Coach Lee Optimistic Over Cougar Baseball Outlook

Roy E. Lee, varsity baseball coach at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, is an optimistic man by nature despite all the evidence he's observed as to just how bad the ball can bounce.

Lee's baseball team, now 5-1-1, won one game over the past rainy and cold weekend, a come-from-behind 7-4 victory over St. Mary's College of Winona, Minn., at the old Cougar Field Friday afternoon.

It took a spine-tingling clutch, bases-loaded triple by SIU-SW's versatile sophomore, Tom Twellman, in the contest's final frame to turn the trick. A downpour cut the game to five innings.

The Cougars came up with six runs in the final frame to wipe out a 4-1 deficit. St. Mary's reliever, Mike DeLava, loaded the bases and walked in two runs before Twellman's clutch.

The victory gave Don Rains, Granite City senior, a 2-0 mound record. Rains, in going all the way, allowed five hits and struck out six while scoring two of the SIU-SW runs. Twellman, who is as good on the baseball field as he is on the soccer green, now leads the Cougars at bat with a .361 average. He's only fanned twice in 36 official times at bat. Lee has used him in the outfield and at second base. He also can catch.

The Cougars face four rough games this week, meeting the University of Missouri, St. Louis, Thursday on the Rivermen's diamond, the Washington club Friday on the Bears' Field, and a double-header Saturday at home against the McKendree College Bears.

Open New Field
The McKendree twillbill will officially open the Cougars' new baseball field. It's a beautiful playing field with almost the same distances as Busch Stadium. Only in centerfield is the Cougars' pasture deep (10 feet) less than the Cardinals. It's located at the corner of Poag and Bluff Roads on the 2,600-acre campus. All Cougar twillbills start at 1 p.m. Roy Lee is still optimistic about his Cougars' chances of winning their third straight bid to a post-season NCAA regional tournament despite several big question marks.

No. 1, will the club's top hitter, centerfielder Jerry Picher of Collinsville, recover sufficiently from his pre-season paralyzing injury to gain a starter's berth, or will he be red-shirted the rest of the season?

No. 2, will his senior left-handed mound ace, Steve Malone, round into the shape which has made him a winning hurler for the past three seasons. The Marion, Ill., southpaw had to have a cyst removed from his lower chest right before the Cougars headed south two weeks ago.

Lee's optimistic nature got another stiff test Friday as his hard-hitting catcher, first-baseman, outfielder Bill Campbell was smashed in the mouth in batting practice and was forced out of the line-up. The Madison slugger is hitting .333.

Confirms Optimism
Dan Cole's play at first base, plus his .355 hitting, has apparently confirmed Lee's optimism in switching the big Normandy High grad from the outfield to the infield. Cole has apparently solved his problems with his grades, too.

The Cougars' infield appears jelled, now, with Mike Altira of Edwardsville fielding brilliantly and hitting a robust 371 and drawing a record 14 walks. At shortstop, it's another Edwardsville High grad, Pat Peterson. In addition to fielding flawlessly, Peterson has ripped out four hits in nine times at bat since battling his way in the line-up. At second base, Lee has Jo Jo Crenshaw, a Winfield, Mo., native who is now hitting .277 following a triple and single Friday against St. Mary's.

In left field, Twellman appears to have a big edge, but will probably be switched to centerfield to make way for Campbell and his big bat. Ron Rohlfing, who is struggling to regain his batting eye after a year's service in the U.S. Army, will be in right field at least another week, primarily for his defensive play and great throwing arm. Ron has already thrown two runners out at home plate.

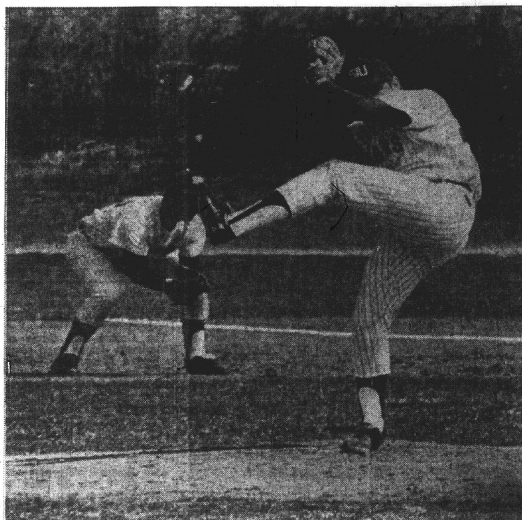

Off to Good Start

Don Rains, Granite City, senior hurler, is off to a good start with a 2-0 record, including the victory over St. Mary's Friday. He held the Redmen to five hits. Mike Dickey, a southpaw from Flora, hurled a two-hit victory in his first outing down south, but ran into wildness problems against Spring Hill College at Mobile, Ala., and lost.

Ron Middleton, lanky right-handed hurler from Oblong, Ill., who with Malone and Rains formed the Cougars' Big Three mound corps last season, is off to a 1-1 record, but appears to be getting stronger.

Dale Wilderspin, a junior college transfer and another right-hander, is 1-1 and should have been 2-0 except for an error-filled last inning against Valdosta State College in Georgia. Leading 4-2 against Valdosta in the final frame, two dropped easy fly balls cost Wilderspin the victory.

Ken Desmarez, a sophomore

WINDING UP against St. Mary's College of Winona, Minn., Friday enroute to his second victory without a defeat for SIU-SW is Granite City's Don Rains who had a hand in the win, scoring two runs while allowing five hits and striking out six in the 7-4 affair. The game was called after five innings because of rain.

fire-baller right hander from Elmwood Park, Ill., has looked impressive in two outings. Lefty Stan "Sadie" Hawkins, Bethalto junior, gives Lee another reason for "being optimistic." Sam Stewart, a rugged-built righty, has been effective in relief and appears to be Lee's choice for the No. 1 bull pen resident.

Catching Duties

Catching duties are still being handled by Roger Belshe, Tim Summers, Willis Bundy and Bill Campbell. Summers appears to have an edge at this stage with a .333 hitting average.

Bobby Graves, Dan Dishinger and Mindy Macius are the Cougars' top three back-up players in the outfield. Graves has been used most because of his speed, but Dishinger has a .429 batting average although he's only been at bat seven times. Graves has two hits in 17 times at bat.

Red Sangster and John Belk give the Cougars two top reserve infielders. And, Lee's optimism is buttressed even more by a talent-filled junior varsity squad, all whom are pushing strongly to be moved up.

LT. COL. EARL STOVER
Chaplain Stover Wins Ft. Bliss Handball Meet

Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Earl F. Stover, son of Mrs. Thelma V. Stover, 3016 Ramona Drive, was a member of the team that won the annual doubles handball tournament at Fort Bliss, Tex.

Stover and his partner, Maj. C. B. Reid, won the final match in three games, 15-12, 21-13 and 21-18. The match lasted two hours and fifteen minutes. Stover played the "L" position and Reid the "dodger" position.

To reach the finals Stover and Reid had to win three matches.

Stover has been playing handball for six years and is ranked as a top Class "B" player.

Chaplain Stover has been in the Army since July 6, 1957, and is presently the pastor at the Fort Bliss Center Chapel. He graduated from Granite City High School in June 1948 and still considers Granite City as his home.

Warrior Golfers Lose, Then Win Two Holiday Outings

Last week was a mixture of happiness and sorrow for Granite City High School golfers as they came in last in an 18-hole triangular meet with Edwardsville and Quincy here Thursday morning, defeated Collinsville in a nine-hole dual Thursday afternoon and won the top spot in a match with Quincy Christian Brothers College and Wood River Friday morning.

In the Thursday morning competition, Edwardsville, finished with the lowest score of 321 for top honors, Quincy had 329 and the Warriors finished with 351 strokes.

Gary Zimmer led the losing Warrior effort, finishing with 82 on the back nine at Arlington Heights and Mark Spear ended with 87.

Third was Bruce Lattimore with 90, Jack Eagles followed with 92 and Mike Willis carried 95.

Collinsville's team arrived rather unexpectedly Thursday afternoon and the Warriors agreed to a nine-hole match which Granite City won 171 to 192.

Zimmer again led the charge with 37 strokes and was trailed by Spear and Lattimore with 44 each and Eagles and Willis with 46.

The Warriors claimed an easy victory Friday on Arlington's 18 holes with 350 strokes while Quincy CBC totaled 355 and Wood River 385.

Individual Warrior scores were: Zimmer 85, Spear 87, Eagles 88, Lattimore, 90 and Willis 106.

City-Street Department Contract Talks Hit Snag

A stalemate in negotiations for a new working agreement between Granite City officials and employees of the street department brought a warning from city council members last week that they are ready to "sit out hard" this year on employee demands for sizeable wage and fringe benefit increases.

A break-off in contract talks between the council's special negotiating committee and agents of the Teamsters' and Laborers' Unions representing street department workers was reported by Alderman Thomas Boker, who said the union agents "got up and walked out" of the latest negotiating session.

Boker, chairman of the negotiating committee, said he believes the city "must hold a close line" in granting salary raises and increased benefits because of substantial raises granted during the last three years and because the city faces critical financial problems during the 1972-73 fiscal year.

At the same time, Mayor Donald Partney told the aldermen that he has been unable to complete a 1972-73 budget recommendation because "the budget is so high this year that it must be trimmed more before I can give it to the council."

Cut Everywhere

He said he has been cutting a preliminary draft of the budget "in every place it can be cut," but that the total still stands at $4,212,000. Last year's municipal budget was $3,675,981.

"We can't handle a budget like that because we don't have the revenue," the mayor said, noting that the city will lose approximately $150,000 next year under a revision of the tax collection system in which all collection fees will go to Madison County. In the past the city received 2% commissions on all collections made locally.

Boker said the stalemate over the street department agreement developed because of wage proposals. The negotiating committee has offered a 4% wage increase, while workers are insisting on 5.5% in line with government wage board recommendations.

"We started out offering a 3% increase in wages, which probably was a little low," Boker said, "and they (the street department employees) started out a bit high. We have come up to 4% and they have come down to the 5.5%." But we're deadlocked on those figures.

Will Appeal to Council
Boker said that when negotiations for the employees walked out of the meeting, they informed the council negotiating committee that they would take their demands "direct to the council."

Alderman Sam Whitmer remarked that negotiation of new agreements "was left up to the council's negotiating committee and I think that's where it should stay. This business of trying to pressure all of the council members and pushing the issues around among all of us just doesn't make sense."

"During the last three years the city employees have received almost everything they requested and its time the city council sits down hard and draws a line on how far this thing can go. They (the employees) have fringe benefits that no other city pays . . . and these things are just as much cost to the city as salaries," Whitmer added.

Boker said that since 1969 Granite City employees have received salary raises totaling 25% and fringe benefits increased by about 10%.

He told the council that the negotiating committee expects to effect new agreements with employees of the police and fire departments without difficulty.

State Encouraging Upgraded Nursing Homes; Computer Aiding Inspection and Licensing

Copley News Service
Springfield—A joint computer-aided inspection and licensing program for nursing homes in Illinois has paid off in license revocations, upgraded facilities and improved operations—and has attracted the attention of federal agencies as well.

Paul Elbow, of the long-term care facilities of the Illinois Department of Public Health, said a number of federal teams and representatives have visited Springfield to observe the program.

You're never too old to hear better
Chicago, Ill. — A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Belton. A non-operating model of the smallest Belton aid ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone answering this advertisement.

Try it to see how it is worth in the privacy of your own home without cost or obligation of any kind. It's yours to keep, free. It weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit. No wires lead from body to head.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Write to Dept. 2125, Belton Electronics Corp., 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 8 Mon., April 3, 1972

It is sponsored cooperatively by the Departments of Mental Health, Public Health and Public Aid, since all three are involved in the care and support of many patients in long-term care facilities.

Under the program, the computer decides which facilities will be inspected, considers the number of inspectors available in a district and makes assignments accordingly.

It then evaluates the inspection results, notifies the facility operators where they have deficiencies and issues the licenses when requirements are met.

The division became a center of public attention a year ago when newspapers carried stories of numerous abuses and failures in some Chicago area nursing homes.

In the 13-month period from Jan. 1, 1971 through Jan. 31, 1972, 66 long-term care facilities voluntarily closed, Elbow said.

Between March of 1971 and last Jan. 31, 11 formal hearings were scheduled and seven were held, the other four operators closing up without waiting for the hearings.

In that same period, Elbow said, six licenses were revoked, following formal hearings, four appeals have been filed on these rulings, 13 facilities have voluntarily changed to a lower level of service and 34 facilities have had payments held up or revoked by the Department of Public Aid.

Pregnantly, Elbow said, the department, aided by the computer, conducts one scheduled inspection annually, and has at least 10 uncheduled and unannounced inspections by nurses in addition.

Medical and other records of at least 30% of the Public Aid patients in the establishment are checked, as well as records of some patients not receiving public assistance.

These are evaluated on a basis of whether the needs of the individual patients are being met, and whether the institution has the capability of meeting the known needs.

Phase II of the computer operation, which will expand present operations and add some new areas, is just now being implemented, with no exact target date as yet on

VALUABLE ADDITION to the St. Elizabeth Hospital Poison Control Center

is a Datagraphix microfiche viewer, resembling a small television set, being inspected by Mrs. Joan Neal and Mrs. Marjorie Arnette, members of St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary, at left, Mrs. Iva Gooding, R.N., emergency room nurse coordinator, center, and Mrs. Albert Tritan, an auxiliary official. The equipment geared to provide instant and complete poison data is a gift of the auxiliary.

New Viewer at Hospital Will Aid Poison Victims

A major supplement to the Poison Control Center at St. Elizabeth Hospital was added this week with the installation of a Datagraphix microfiche viewer.

It is not very large, takes up only 12 x 15-inches of desk space, but the vital piece of equipment could save a life, and definitely will speed up the process of treating patients believed to be poisoned.

The Datagraphix viewer was purchased and donated to the hospital by the St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary, as part of the group's continuing program of service and support to both the hospital and the community.

Patients not following physician's recommended dosage for prescription medicine also need the treatment available at the center on occasions, a staff member explained.

During 1971, a total of six Datagraphix units was installed in Illinois hospital poison control centers, including one at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis.

Results from their use proved "highly successful" to such an extent the state of Illinois has agreed to provide, without cost, microfilm on poison information, and continuously update the film records to all hospitals installing the new system, the local spokesman noted.

Braundmeier earned the B.S. degree from Eastern Illinois University and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in physics from the University of Tennessee.

1,070,400 Summer Jobs Set for Youths in U. S.

A record number of summer job opportunities for 1,070,400 youths between 14 and 21 years of age has been announced by the White House.

Secretary of Labor J. D. Hodgson said the administration is speeding plans to make available more than $319 million, also a record amount (including a supplemental appropriation requested of the Congress), to provide nearly 89,000 more jobs than last summer.

The secretary said the commitments are being made for the summer program now to provide public and private local planners plenty of time to develop job opportunities and recruitment plans.

The $319 million in federal funds will be applied to specific public programs accounting for 734,400 jobs. The balance of $385 million jobs will be provided mainly in the private sector by business and industry, without federal money support.

Federal jobs supported summer jobs will be through the Neighborhood Youth Corps summer program, 600,000; Federal Summer Employment Program for Youth, 63,000; Public Employment Program, 30,100; and Youth Conservation Corps, 3,000.

Neighborhood Youth Corps funds will provide nine weeks of summer employment to 609,300 disadvantaged boys and girls in community service activities, paying $1.80 an hour.

An estimated $25 million of already allocated Section 6 Emergency Employment Act funds will be available to provide 50,100 jobs paying $1.60 an hour if local officials so choose.

The Federal Summer Employment Program will hire one disadvantaged youth for every 40 Federal employees for jobs in most agencies. The Youth Conservation Corps selects participants from all walks of life for environmental support work.

The National Alliance of Business (NAB) has pledged to hire 175,000 youths in their 126 major metropolitan areas, an increase of 24,000 over the number the NAB placed last summer in private jobs.

At the same time, the Federal-State Employment Service plans to fill 161,000 jobs in its Youth Summer Placement program, an increase of 5,500 over last year. The Employment Service will hire up to 600 special placement officers to help handle the influx of summer job seekers.

In another facet of the administration's summer program, 1,943,000 recreational opportunities for young people between 8 and 13 years of age will be provided. The Summer Recreation Support program will support 1.9 million youngsters and the National Summer Youth Sports will handle an additional 43,000.

The U. S. Labor Department's 10 regional offices are contacting local Neighborhood Youth Corps program sponsors now to inform them of their slot and fund allocations.

In many communities, the mayor's office will play a crucial role in coordinating summer activities for youth.

Funds Are Released to Design State Building

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has released $130,085 to Filippo & Kampwerth, associate architects, of Alton, to design the new East St. Louis Regional Office Building, according to Frank Resnik, acting director for the Illinois Department of General Services.

The East St. Louis facility, which is to cost $3,350,000, will be the last of six regional office buildings planned for Illinois. It will provide a central location for the administrative operations of key state agencies.

The building is to be located in the heart of the city's downtown area, providing 51,000 square feet of space for the following departments and agencies:

Public Aid; Corrections, Public Health, Agriculture, Labor, Mental Health, Revenue, Children and Family Services, Illinois Veterans' Commission, University of Illinois division of services for crippled children, Environmental Protection Agency and the East St. Louis Regional Airport Authority.

The new regional state office building is part of Gov. Ogilvie's program to regenerate the economy of the entire local metropolitan area, Resnik explained.

"Construction of the building will be the initial impetus for stimulating private investment and redevelopment of the central business district of East St. Louis."

Junia high students from Coldridge, Prather, Central, and Grigsby Schools participated in the two-day campaign under the direction of Mrs. Trower.

St. Louis," he said. "The governor's plan is to bring state services directly to the local level—to meet the needs of the people in this area."

Legislation authorizing funds for construction of the three-story building was introduced in the Illinois General Assembly's fall session and was passed the last day of the session, Nov. 13.

The funds are being financed through the Illinois Building Authority and include money for site acquisition and architectural design fees as well as construction costs.

It had originally been selected to work on the East St. Louis project because of its design work on the state office building at Marion, dedicated in ceremonies with the governor participating on March 4.

Flippo & Kampwerth, 215 Market St., Alton, did the original study on the design treatment for the office building, which was the first step in implementing the plan to bring state services in direct relationship to the local level.

The firm was then selected to prepare the construction document.

Resnik said the East St. Louis area economy will be enhanced by approximately 225 new employees in the downtown area and by an additional 275 visitors every day.

Other state office buildings have been constructed at Vandalia, Springfield, Rockford,ampaign and, most recently, Marion.

Ex-GC Man Heads Hotel Project in El Salvador

Ray F. Edwards, a former resident of Granite City, has been elected president of a company presently constructing a million dollar hotel complex in El Salvador, Central America.

Several years ago, Edwards purchased a large tract of coastal land with the idea of developing it into the Riviera of Central America.

The former Granite City man has sent several newspaper clippings to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Edwards, Collinsville, reporting progress of the project.

One million, four hundred and forty thousand dollars is the total investment in the tourist complex known as Hotel Sol y Mar (Sun and Sea), located 45 kilometers along the La Libertad-Acajutla highway, according to the information received by Edwards' son.

This luxury hotel, the first of its kind in Central America, will have one 20-block expansion divided into two parts, according to the engineer, Ernesto A. Sol.

The part in the mountain country will include three buildings of most importance. The first is a three-story, 97 double-room and three-suite hotel. Each room will include a terrace and all the latest modern conveniences.

RAY EDWARDS

The second building will have two floors and will house two complete restaurants, social areas, and areas for commercial purposes and relaxation. The third building will house administrative personnel and employees.

A second area of the complex will be on the bluff near the sea and will include thatched huts for picnic use and dressing rooms for the guests.

Also planned are tennis courts and rental of horses, motorcycles, bicycles and cars. Water sports also will be featured, such as diving and deep sea fishing.

Hits Ice Machine

Dale L. Hicks, 1810 Cleveland Blvd., parked his car at the Moto Service Station, 17th Street and Madison Avenue, at 10 a.m. Thursday and as he walked away, the car rolled backwards into a ice vending machine, owned by City Ice Products of Granite City.

Americans and Edwards himself hold a near majority of all stock issued.

To Open Next Year

The project is scheduled to open in April 1973 and has received warm welcome by Salvadorian officials in hopes of promoting tourism in the country.

"El Salvador is politically stable and has 31 foreign embassies in the capital city of San Salvador, which is near the hotel. The climate is a warm average of 70 degrees all year, with an absence of annoying insects as we find here in the summer and the advantage of fresh ocean air," Dennis Edwards reported.

Dennis and Barbara Edwards are planning a vacation to visit his father this summer and welcome any communications from any of his old friends in this area.

Edwards is the son of Mrs. Jack Traylor, 1824 Primrose Ave. He has a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Fitzpatrick, who lives in Bloomington, Ill.

Independent Post Office Now Serving Quad-Cities

A new postal service, this one privately owned, was to be inaugurated here today by the Independent Postal System of America (IPSA).

The IPSA presently has more than 200 offices around the country, including branches in East Alton and Belleville. The area offices have been given partial service to the Quad-Cities by the new office, located at 2247 Madison Ave., will join the Quad-City area directly to the nation-wide postal network.

The IPSA is restricted by law to carrying only second, third and fourth class mail, the U. S. Post Office retaining exclusive handling of first-class mail delivery.

Supplement Post Office
"We are not in competition with the U. S. Post Office but our service supplements it," Art Hankfelder, IPSA regional vice-president for the Eastern United States, said. Hankfelder is in Granite City assisting in the establishment of the new office.

Between 60 and 70 persons, mostly mail carriers, will be employed here by the IPSA. Each mail carrier is required to purchase his own route of about 400 stops, paying $1,000 for the rights and training.

Each will earn a percentage of the postage paid for the mail they deliver. Hankfelder estimated that a carrier devoting five hours per day can earn from $2,000 to $5,000 per year working for IPSA. At present, about 15% of the needed staff has purchased routes. A drive to fill the vacancies will start today.

IPSA will deliver bulk mail for 4-cents per package weighing three ounces or less.

Letters and packages for complete coverage of routes need not be addressed to specific homes, which the post office requires, Hankfelder said. He added that with 48 hours notice IPSA will guarantee delivery by a certain date.

The postal service began in February 1968 in Oklahoma City, Okla. It now serves 23 states. The operators plan to expand the service nationwide and to provide some services not given by the U. S. Post Office, including free delivery of mail to U. S. Congressmen.

Free To Congressmen
Starting Sept. 1, IPSA will deliver mail free to any member of the U. S. House or Senate from his constituents in 15 cities. Eventually the free mailing will be expanded nationwide, Hankfelder said.

Another IPSA plan is to issue its own postage stamps, with hopes of claiming a large share of the Christmas card market. The service also presently is computerizing route sequencing with hopes of handling delivery of magazines.

In charge of the Quad-Cities office are Clyde Mertz, formerly director of training for the independent postal service nationwide, and Jack Bugby.

Scout Camp-O-Ree Set April 21-23

The Uniwah (Quad-Cities) district of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold a Boy Scout Camp-O-Ree April 21, 22 and 23 at Fort Kaskaskia State Park in south-eastern Illinois near Ellis Grove and Kaskaskia on Illinois Route Three.

The program will be developed by the individual troops with emphasis on first and second-class advancement.

Units also are being encouraged to take side trips to historical points of interest in the area such as the Pierre Menard home, Kaskaskia State Memorial, Randolph County Conservation area, and the Prairie du Rocher line mine.

Kent Dunn of the local YMCA staff will conduct a campfire Saturday evening.

John Pekarik, district activities chairman, will be in charge of the event. He will be assisted by Ed Lorton, Dick Yates and Ollie Gilmore, in addition to several members of the commissioners' staff under the direction of Ted Scrum, district commissioner.

Study Finds Bottle Deposit Law Would Aid Employment

Copley News Service

Springfield—An economic study completed for the Illinois Institute of Environmental Quality maintains that more jobs would be created than lost if a proposed deposit would be imposed on soft drink and alcoholic beverage containers.

Meanwhile, the proposal is still tied up in a court case. Public hearings on the proposal got under way in January. Just after they started, a group of petitioners sought and obtained a circuit court injunction which barred the Pollution Control Board from continuing the scheduled hearings. The case has gotten to the Illinois Supreme Court.

The original proposal sought a five-cent deposit on the containers. The study was done by the University of Illinois at the request of the Institute of Environmental Quality, which is headed by Michael Schneiderman.

The study, among some of its points, says that there would be a substantial change toward the usage of returnable bottles, and that this in the end would create jobs.

The study also said there might be some job layoffs in the container industry, but that this would be offset by jobs in the retail trade segment.

When the institute and the Pollution Control Board presented the proposal, they said it was a two-fold move.

First, it was designed to be used as a weapon to fight the ever-mounting litter problem in Illinois.

Second, it would be used as a tool for reducing waste of raw materials, energy and manpower.

The Pollution Control Board has had the container problem before it for some time. One group petitioned the Board to adopt a rule to outlaw the sale of non-returnable cans and bottles.

The Board will not move for further hearings on the proposal until the matter is cleared up in the courts. This might take a little time. Board officials say they are hopeful that the court matter will be cleared up in the near future so that hearings may proceed on the proposal.

How About Paper or Self-Destructing Autos To Remedy Problem of Abandoned Vehicles?

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service
Springfield — That new, four-on-the-floor, dual carb, bucket-seated bomb you just bought may be the manufacturers' pride and the joy of the installment loan company. But chances are that one of these days it will be just one more vinyl-roofed headache for some city or state policeman.

Law enforcement officials, already swamped by a flood of four-wheel disasters nobody wants, see no signs of an ebb in the tide of vehicles abandoned along the state's streets, backroads and highways.

Current anti-pollution fervor isn't helping. The abandoned cars, everyone admits are an eyesore. But many scrap dealers won't take them unless they've been burned out, and the motors removed.

It costs more than the junker is worth to have someone cut out the useless motor—and what do you do with it then?

Recent air pollution regulations and the problem by prohibiting burning of old cars.

Cpl. Kenneth Decker of State Police District 25, the detective division of the force, says state troopers along processed 5,601 abandoned vehicles for sale in 1971.

That doesn't include stolen cars which were returned to owners after being found abandoned, and cars whose owners were traced and forced to comply with state laws which require them to dispose of the vehicles themselves.

Further, the state police totals are only a fraction—and probably a small one—of the overall total number of orphan autos processed by various city police and county sheriff forces in Illinois.

The state police figure of 5,601 represents only those cars abandoned along state-patrolled roads or casually left after closing hours, at some roadside service station by an owner who then walked away.

Of the total, 3,424 were actually sold at auction, a happy enough disposition which still left more than 2,000 derelict vehicles to be disposed of some other way.

The law calls it a misdemeanor to abandon a car, and sets fines of $25 to $100, plus requiring the owner to dispose of the vehicle. But often, an owner simply can't be found.

When the car is seven years old or less, a search for the owner's name is made with the secretary of state's office. If an owner is identified, he is notified by certified mail that he has 30 days to dispose of the car or it will be offered at public auction.

If he felt it was such a loss that he abandoned it in the first place, he may decide to ignore the whole thing.

If it is more than seven years old, certified notification isn't required. The owner, if identified, can be told by phone, regular mail or in person to make some arrangement for the car within 10 days—or it's off to the auction block.

Indicating that things in the abandoned car field aren't getting any better, are current state police figures. So far this year, state troopers alone have processed 558 abandoned cars in January and another 402 in February.

Perhaps what the country needs now is a throw-away paper car (biodegradable, of course) or a "Mission: Impossible" model that will self-destruct (flamelessly), five minutes after the last payment is made.

Handicapped Eligible For Hiring by County

County cannot discriminate in employment of handicapped persons, according to a newly-issued opinion by Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott.

He pointed out that the Constitution of 1970 in its Bill of Rights provides that persons with physical or mental handicaps "shall be free from discrimination unrelated to ability in the hiring and promotion practices of any employer."

The issue involves the increasing cost of a group hospitalization insurance policy in effect for several years for Tazewell County employees.

State's Attorney Bernard L. Olman asked whether the County Board could require that new employees pass a physical examination as a condition of employment or else waive their rights to coverage under the insurance plan.

Scott answered that such a practice would be illegal both under the new constitution and a 1971 implementation law barring discrimination in the terms, conditions or privileges of employment of the physically or mentally handicapped, if they are able to do the work.

"It is, therefore, my opinion," Scott said, "that the County Board cannot prevent a county official from employing a person who cannot pass the required physical examination or hospitalization insurance and who refuses to waive his coverage under the insurance plan, if the handicap is unrelated to the ability to perform the employment involved."

SPEC. 4 HAROLD MARSHALL
Man on a Mountain

On their days off, however, the Americans from the mountain room around Toguchi, go skin-diving in the clear water of Nago Bay, take pictures and ride motorcycles.

Most of the townspeople know them and a friendly relationship exists between the service men and the Okinawans.

Spec. 5 Thomas Venard from Tracy, Minn., is especially popular, the local soldier said, explaining that the Minnesota GI has "an amazing command of self-taught Japanese and Okinawan dialect."

The seven men of the mountain peak on Northern Okinawa are headed by Spec. 4 George Demers of Ohio, who has been nicknamed "Gody" by his close-knit unit.

Pet Parakeet, Puppy
They have a parakeet and a mongrel puppy who add to the kind of "family atmosphere" on top of Yatake, Spec. 4 Marshall notes.

The station employs 19 Okinawans from the Army facilities engineers and visitors do occasionally make the trek up the mountainside to the soldiers' elevated aerie. "So we are not too lonely," the Granite City serviceman said.

Spec. 4 Marshall attended Granite City High School and was employed at the former Big "C" Supermarket prior to enlisting in the Army two years ago.

Friends may write the local GI at Spec. 4 Harry F. Marshall, 352-44-2572, STRATCOM, L.L. Bn., Yatake, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96321.

Volpe Sets Deadline For Missouri Airport Site

The controversy of whether a new major St. Louis area airport should be located in Missouri or on a site between Columbia and Waterloo in Illinois is being brought to a head by U. S. Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe who has given Missouri officials 60 days to propose a location there before the Federal Aviation Administration acts on the Illinois site.

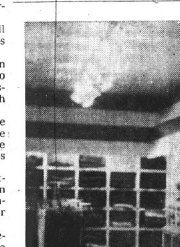

In a letter to officials of both states, Volpe said he believes a new airport is necessary and indicates his hope that both states can come to an agreement on one site.

Working towards this end, he has requested Adm. Russell R. Waeche, the Transportation Department's secretarial representative in Kansas City, Mo., to meet with all concerned officials and attempt to reach a satisfactory solution to the dispute, Volpe said.

"Adm. Waeche is to take whatever steps he deems appropriate to explore fully the feasibility of agreement and to report to me as soon as he can, any and every day within 60 days," Volpe stated in the letter.

He continued that if Waeche's report shows agreement unlikely, he will request that the FAA take action on the grant request for funds to purchase land at Columbia-Waterloo.

Copies of the letter were sent to the governors of both states and officials of St. Louis, St. Louis County, and Franklin, Jefferson and St. Charles counties in Missouri, and Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties in Illinois.

Defense Disclosure Rule Is Called Betrayal of Clients

Copley News Service

Springfield — A new Illinois Supreme Court rule is causing some stir in the state among lawyers who act as public defenders.

The rule—adopted last October—seeks to have the defense counsel disclose to the prosecution what will be used in the case of defense.

This is said to include possible testimony, documentary and other evidence that the defense might have for use in the case.

James J. Doherty of the Cook County Public Defender's Appeals Division criticized the rule in an article written for the Illinois Bar Journal. In the article, which appeared in the March edition, Doherty took sharp issue with the proposed rule. At one point in the article, Doherty says the defense attorney has been reduced "to a conduit whose sole function is to betray his client."

State judicial officials are anticipating that public defenders will object to the rule once they become familiar with it.

In the main, those public defenders contacted by Copley News Service were not completely aware of the ramifications of the new rule. All said they did not know anything of the article in the Illinois Bar Journal.

However, there are presently no indications that the public defenders will openly object to the new rule.

Some of the defenders say they want to discuss the matter further with others. Probably the main objection will come from larger counties, such as Cook.

The new rule was formulated by a special committee appointed by the Illinois Supreme Court. But before adoption of the rule, report from the committee to the court was completely reviewed by a special subcommittee.

Just how successful objections to the rule will be remains to be seen. For the time being, at least, the public defenders will have to abide by the new ruling.

Fewer Jobless Goal of State Budget Proposal

By RAY SERATI
Copy News Service

Springfield—Gov. Richard Ogilvie is hopeful that proposals which have been presented in his budget will eventually help cut down unemployment in the state.

He thinks the program will be able to stem joblessness partly through increased funds in the Illinois Department of Labor budget.

Ogilvie has increased the Labor Department's budget by $12.5 million. He adds say this will mean about $6 million will go for the program to reduce unemployment in the state.

This money is to be spent on such programs as getting returning veterans hired and the Work Incentive Program, which is operated in conjunction with the Public Aid Department.

Under the Work Incentive Program, welfare recipients are tested, screened and referred to possible jobs along with some training.

Ogilvie has maintained that more help must be given to veterans newly returning to civilian life. He has urged private businesses to give veterans extra consideration when they apply for jobs. There has been some preference given to veterans in hiring at the state level.

The state also has tried to expand its service to returning veterans seeking employment.

Additional personnel has been hired at Illinois State Employment offices to provide the services needed by the veterans in their search for jobs.

Unemployment could be a campaign topic as the year wears on and Ogilvie will be trying to stem it as an election issue.

Of course, the main hurdle yet for the proposed budget is to pass the General Assembly. Democrats in the legislature may not be disposed to give in to something that might take away a campaign issue.
